

Hi and welcome to SAIC and to 162 N Street!

I am your 10th floor RA Jin(she/her) from South Korea, and I hope you'll enjoy your time here :)

To talk a bit about my work, I am mostly a painter and a sculptor, but also enjoy illustrations and digital art. I love to integrate the different media and concepts, which was what led me to choose SAIC. To be honest, I am still figuring out my own art style myself, so don't feel pressured to choose right away between the range of courses available here at SAIC - and also remember that you will always have support and help. Feel free to drop by for a cup of tea or a quick chat if you ever need help figuring out your classes, or even just to spill some tea. We, as RAs, are here to support you if you ever need suggestions or someone to talk things over. Even if you feel too shy to approach me, there will always be times like the RA-led events where we can get to know each other doing fun activities before you feel comfortable to talk(I promise, you will start looking forward to them-there's free food too!).

~Tips for smoother roommating~

Communication is the Key.

we all need time to get comfortable, so let's just be nice to each other, and if things don't work out, we can always talk about it together.

Looking forward to meet you, Jin

P.S. If you happen to be into thrifting, I know a few places.